Discover Scotland

In Scotland you will be spoilt for choice. An amazingly beautiful part of the UK, you will find gentle rolling hills, rugged coastlines, stunning beaches, shimmering lochs, dramatic mountains and ancient castles. But that's far from all. Scotland is also home to a host of vibrant, modern, innovative and busy cosmopolitan cities that offer a fantastic and high-quality lifestyle to students from all over the world.

Why study in Scotland?

In Scotland you will benefit from world-class teaching developed over centuries. Every year, more than 41,000 international students from over 180 countries choose Scotland for their UK education. Here are the some of the top reasons why:*

- Scotland has been leading the way in education since the 1400s.
- Scottish education will teach you not just what to think, but how to think, with inspirational teaching that will give you the confidence to put your ideas into practice.
- Scottish society is recognised as being multicultural, modern and cosmopolitan.
- Scotland is consistently rated as a friendly, safe and economical country that offers a very high-quality of life.
- Scotland is home to buzzing cities, spectacular landscapes and a vivid and varied sports, arts, entertainment and social scene.
- There is a strong and growing economy in Scotland and it has recently won the titles of UK and European Region of the Future.
- Many teachers in Scottish institutions are the people writing the textbooks, creating the inventions and making the groundbreaking discoveries. They will challenge and support you at every stage in your studies to ensure that you reach your full potential.
- Flexibility is at the heart of the Scottish education system, and you will be encouraged to build a study programme that suits your needs.

Aberdeen – The Silver City

Aberdeen, also widely known as the Silver City, is a thriving and cosmopolitan city located amid beautiful beaches and spectacular countryside, on the north-east coast of the UK.

Home to the numerous and expansive industries servicing the oil and gas fields of the North Sea, Aberdeen is the Energy Capital of Europe, one of the UK's most affluent cities and an exhilarating and fascinating place to live.

Only an hour from London by air, Aberdeen boasts an international airport just five miles from the city centre and a reliable rail network with regular routes across Scotland, as well as connections to the rest of the UK.

Safe, student friendly and multi-cultural, Aberdeen is home to almost 30,000 students. With a host of shops, bars, restaurants, cinemas, sporting facilities, music and theatre venues, as well as events such as the International Youth Festival, Aberdeen Highland Games and regular street market, Aberdeen is a vibrant and engaging city.

“My time at Robert Gordon University has been the best experience of my life. I feel I have achieved so much being here and met so many friends in the city that it really feels like home to me – it will be hard to leave!”
